

A Library for the 21st Century

The Friends of the Danville Library Endowment Fund was established to ensure that our library has the books, materials and programs that meet the needs and reflect the interests of our community and is not entirely dependent on the ebb and flow of tax-based support.

Central to our mission is providing books, materials and programs to promote the proficiency, encouragement and enjoyment of reading by young children.

You can help

Contributions in any amount are always welcome and are counted cumulatively.

Send them to
Library Endowment,
400 Front Street,
Danville, CA 94526.

The Endowment established The British Book Collection in memory of Librarian Stefanie van Ogtrop (1940-2005).

The Endowment supports:

- The Danville Library Book Club
- The business and self-help collections
- Western history
- Adult and young adult fiction collections,
- Children's reference

Audio Visual Materials

are an important part of our funding initiatives

The Endowment supports Arts Enrichment in the Library, a book-based program for elementary and middle school children that introduces them to art, music, theatre and culinary projects in fun, educational ways.

Endowment funds are professionally managed by the East Bay Community Foundation.

We accept donations of

- securities
- charitable remainder trusts
- charitable lead trusts.

You can make the Endowment a beneficiary of your will. For more information on the Endowment and the ways in which you can make a lasting contribution to the Danville Library, please call 925-938-READ or 925-938-7323.

Donations of $5,000 or more are honored on the Endowment Board in the Library.
