DECEMBER 2006 MONTHLY STATISTICS FOR ELECTRONIC RESOURCES USAGE

Wow! The change between December 2005 and December 2006 is phenomenal.

For example:

Student Resource Center, 2005, YTD	5,388
2006	81,948

Live Homework Help, 2005, YTD	2,292
2006	3,728

Opposing Viewpoints, 2005, YTD	3,903
2006	81,906

Tumblebooks, 2005, YTD	1,755
2006	7,405

There are other growth areas but not at these huge increments. The Ed1Stop portal, the building information literacy outreach, CCRreads, and the other ongoing community library outreach is really working.

RELIGIOUS GROUP TO APPEAL TO SUPREME COURT:

A religious organization that lost a federal court appeal to hold services in meeting rooms at the Antioch Library will take its case to the U.S. Supreme Court, an attorney for the group said.

The 9th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals on Friday denied a request by Faith Center Evangelistic Ministries to present a second round of arguments in front of the judges.

Attorneys representing the organization had asked the judges for a chance to argue that the library is violating the group's right to free speech by prohibiting it from holding services there.

The court ruled in September that groups may hold religious discussions in the public rooms, but the county can stop them from conducting religious services.

"The 9th Circuit has held that religious speech is inferior," said Tim Chandler, attorney for the Alliance Defense Fund, which is representing the Faith Center.

- Commissioners received a report on the Public Library Foundation (PLF) and Commissioner Smith initiated educational lobbying effort with the California Library Association's Legislative Committee for full PLF funding.
- Commissioners received an update on the January 9, 2006 City Managers' meeting on the Library's Strategic Plan.
- Commissioners received a report on the Library's 2006-07 budget.
- Commissioners received a demonstration on OCLC's Open WorldCat and California Library Catalog (CALCAT). Open World Cat gives access through search engines to library holdings and points more people to library collections as a first source of information.
- Commissioners received a status report on the Library's database pilot program that was conducted in San Ramon, Hercules, and Antioch.

2. Accomplishments

- The Board of Supervisors and the Mayors' Conference reauthorized the Library Commission for five years, July 1, 2006 – June 30, 2011.
- Commissioners passed a Public Library Foundation (PLF) resolution and submitted a draft resolution that unanimously was supported by the Mayors at their November 2, 2006 meeting.
- Commissioners supported Proposition 81, the California State Library Construction Bond, which passed in Contra Costa County by 54%. As a citizen, Commissioner Smith made 25 presentations and obtained over 50 endorsements for Proposition 81, from school boards, labor and business groups, and current and former elected officials. BALIS passed their first resolution supporting Proposition 81.
- Commissioner Smith was selected to receive the California Library Association's (CLA) President's award for 2006 and the Board of Supervisors recognized Smith for this award at their October 24, 2006 meeting.
- Commissioners receive reports and updates, discuss and provide significant input to all of the library's major issues, initiatives, and new programs. Some of the topics covered this year included: the Strategic Plan for Contra Costa County Library and discussion of the City Managers at the January 9, 2006 meeting; Project Second Chance's literacy programs and outreach, the Library's partnership with the County's Office of Education on the educational portal, Ed1Stop; Library e-card service; Library's RSS Feeds (Really Simple Syndication); and Library's e-Vanced Solutions software.
- Commissioner Nolte (San Ramon) worked with San Ramon Library staff on the annual jazz program and on the retirement party of former San Ramon Senior Branch Librarian, Joyce Gunn.
- Commissioners continue to support city read programs throughout Contra Costa County.
- Commissioners worked with local businesses, organizations, individuals, Friends of the Library groups, and Library staff to raise funds for library materials.
- Commissioners who are Friends and Foundation members were recognized at the Board of Supervisors October 24, 2006 meeting when October 22-28, 2006 was proclaimed as "Friends and Foundations of the Library Week in Contra Costa County".

3. Facilities
