Vote for the new Contra Costa County Library card designs

The Contra Costa County Library is releasing five new library card designs and needs help to narrow down the choices. Beginning today, May 20, the public can vote for their five favorite designs. The voting, which takes place online, will allow people to choose from nine options.

Visit ccclib.org and look for the VOTE HERE button. Voting will remain open through June 1, 2019.

“Helping us decide on our new cards is a fun way to get the public excited about the library,” said County Librarian Melinda Cervantes. “As part of our Strategic Plan, we are always looking for ways to engage with library customers.”

The five winning cards will be revealed, and available to the public, later this year.
